(The Deputy Chairman in the Chair)

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA (Bihar): Madam, I have a question to ask about the order paper... (Interruptions)... Madam, about the order paper I have a question to ask.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let me take the order paper out before you ask. Just a second. Yes, what is it?

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA: Madam, I find that as usual the last item on the agenda for today's business has been mention d as Clarifications on the Statemen by Minister for Chemicals on the decision of the Government rescinding the Molasses Control Order. This statement, Madam, was made on the 4th of May and today is the 12th of May and I was one of those who had given their names for seeking clarifications. I am getting up to tell you that this is a very serious matter and that we have not been able to find time to seek clarifications. This whole Order of the Governmen is stinking to high heavens ... (interruptions)... And it is even worse than molasses, I mean, stinking more than molasses stink.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: It is fermenting.

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA: No, no; now I want to know if we are going to find time, because I find at 7 O' clock we are going to take up half an hour discussion. Now when do we find time to discuss this statement? In the Economic Times today there is an item 'P.M. to decide on Molasses Decontrol". Then there is another item saying "Molasses Decontrol not yet in sight".

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Yashwant Sinha, may I remind the Members that there was something happening in the other House and our Members were so keen to go there and there was nobody? The Minister did tell me, "Whenever you want me to come and give whatever clarifications the Members want, I am there." But we should have had people here to ask for clarifications.

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA: I was here all the time

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You are only one and one person does not make the quorum. We need people to have a quorum to run the House. And that was the difficulty. If you want, I can call him. ...(Interruptions)... We will ask the Minister to be present to explain what-ever clarifications you want on this, because he did come twice to me and said. "I am there to clarify the points." But I said there should be people to ask questions.

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA: Madam let this matter be taken up today. We must take it up today.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: All right. Your point is well taken.

Re surrender of economic and political sovereignty

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA (Bihar) Now, I have another issue to raise for which I have taken your permission and the Chairman's permission, Madam.

Madam, the question of the surrender of economic and also political sovereignty of this country and the question of decisions in regard to economic matters being taken not here but elsewhere outside the country, these issues, these questions have been raised by all of us sitting here in the Opposition and some Members also from the Treasury Benches, but the Government has always chosen to stoutly deny the fact that there is any foreign pressure in regard to the economic decision-making process of this particular Government. Now, Madam ,I have here with me a document which will clearly prove that months before the current year's Budget of 1993-94 was presented to Parliament, the Finance Ministry and the Government of India had taken foreign financial institutions into confidence in regard to major policy changes. In fact, it will be more correct to say that these policy changes were dictated by the foreign financial institutions and it was under their pressure that these policy changes have been introduced in our Budget. I have here the
